City Hall is situated on City Hall Square and contains the Executive Offices of the city. The structure has a frontage of 72 feet on Elgin Street and a depth of 125 feet; the tower at the north-west angle is about 130 feet high. On the square, in front of the building, is Hamilton McCarthy's monument to the memory of the Ottawans who fell in the Boer War in 1900-1902. This tribute was erected with the pennies of 30,000 school children of the city and county.
